- b. The Gliding Girl Tango (1912)
- c. Solid Men to the Front! (1918)

Each year the L.H.S.G.B. programs unfamiliar marches of J. P. Sousa. "Powhatan's Daughter", seldom heard and long out of print, is the march that first endeared Sousa to the American Indians. It was a salute to Pocahontas, daughter of Chief Powhatan, and was written for the Jamestown Exposition of 1907. Mr. Sousa's grandson, John Philip III, of New York City has personally helped us acquire a set of parts for the Grenadier Band.

"Solid Men to the Front!" is regarded by scholars as one of Sousa's better efforts. It was also among his own favorites. Dr. Frank Simon, one of the Sousa Band's stellar cornet soloists, recalled Sousa's conducting mannerisms when the band played it: "I could tell by the way he conducted it that he was really wrapped up in his own hard-hitting melodies."

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania

A Christmas candle in every window remains a 20th century reminder of the thoughts of those who named Bethlehem on Christmas Eve in 1741. From the singing of hymns in the first log house, to the first community orchestra in 1744, to the present emphasis on music in its public schools, Bethlehem has always placed good music high on the list of human enjoyments.

With a population of over 72,000 Bethlehem is located in the heart of the Lehigh Valley. Philadelphia lies 50 miles to the south, and New York City, 90 miles to the east. One-third of the entire population of the United States is contained within 300 miles of the Lehigh Valley.

Bethlehem's Industry, Religion, Music, and Recreation are symbolized in the five points of the "star", Bethlehem's official seal. These endeavors reflect the sense of accomplishment of her citizens. The City is the home of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Lehigh University, Moravian College, and the renowned Bethlehem Bach Choir.
